

Child Protection Policy (CHS 1)

Policy Rationale

Cooks Hill Preschool is committed to providing an environment that fosters health, development, spirituality, self-respect and dignity, that is free from violence and exploitation. Our Philosophy provides a commitment to provide a safe, welcoming and happy place for children. Under the Children and Young Persons [Care and Protection] Act 1998, children must receive the care and protection necessary to ensure their safety, welfare and well-being. Our goal is to ensure that every reasonable precaution is taken to protect children being educated and cared for by the service from harm. Our service (educators, staff, management and volunteers) advocates children's right to care and protection to ensure their safety, welfare and wellbeing, and as Mandatory Reporters we have a responsibility to report any concerns of children at risk of significant harm.

Strategies, Practices and Procedures

Definitions

'Mandatory reporters' means people who deliver the following services, wholly or partly, to children as part of their paid or professional work;

- Health care
- Welfare
- Education e.g. teachers, counsellors, principals
- Children's Services e.g. early childhood educators
- Residential Services
- Law Enforcement

(Ref: <https://reporter.childstory.nsw.gov.au/s/article/What-is-Mandatory-Reporting>)

'At risk of significant harm' - in relation to a child or young person means that there are current concerns for their safety, welfare or wellbeing because of the presence to a significant extent of any one or more of the following circumstances.

- The child's or young person's basic physical or psychological needs are not being met or at risk of not being met;
- The parents or other caregivers have not arranged and are unable or unwilling to arrange for the child or young person to receive medical care;
- In the case of a child or young person who is required to attend school in accordance with the Education Act 1990 — the parents or other caregivers have not arranged and are unable or unwilling to arrange for the child or young person to receive and education in accordance with that Act;
- The child or young person has been, or is at risk of being, physically or sexually abused or ill-treated;
- The child or young person is living in a household where there have been incidents of domestic violence and, as a consequence, the child or young person is at risk of serious physical or psychological harm;
- A parent or other caregiver has behaved in such a way towards the child or young person that the child or young person has suffered or is at risk of suffering serious psychological harm; or
- The child was the subject of a pre-natal report under section 25 of the Children and Young Persons Care and Protection Act 1998 and the birth mother of the child did not engage successfully with the support services to eliminate, or minimise to the lowest level reasonably practical, the risk factors that gave rise to the report.

(Children and Young Persons [Care and Protection] Act 1998 No 157. Ch 3 Pt 2 Sec 23).

'Reasonable grounds' - means that you suspect a child may be at risk of significant harm based on:

- Your observations of the child, young person or family; or
- What the child, young person, parent or another person has told you. It does not mean that you are required to confirm your suspicions or have clear proof before making a report. To do so may interfere with evidence or compromise the work of statutory agencies such as Police or Community Services.

Strategies

The Approved Provider/Nominated Supervisor will use best endeavours to:

- The Approved Provider will ensure that persons placed in the day to day charge of the service have a current qualification in Child Protection.
- Ensure that any adult working or volunteering directly with children signs a Prohibited Employment Declaration Form and a Consent to a Working with Children Check, and ensure their clearance prior to employment. This must be renewed every 5 years.
- Ensure every adult working with children is made aware of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 and Keep Them Safe: A shared approach to child wellbeing, and of their obligations under this law and action plan (Education and Care Services National Regulation, Regulation 84, National Quality Standards QA 2);
- Orientate every working adult to this child protection policy, Keep Them Safe protocols and Mandatory Reporter responsibilities and ensuring their regular review of these.

Educators and staff will use best endeavours to:

- Develop trusting and secure relationships with all children at the service;
- Make reports of current concerns for any child at risk of significant harm to the Child Protection Helpline for Mandatory Reporters (132 111); and
- Make appropriate responses to all disclosures of abuse and any allegation of abuse against staff members of the service.

Documentation of current concerns

The Approved Provider/Nominated Supervisor will use best endeavours to:

- Support staff through the process of documenting and reporting current concerns of children at risk of significant harm; and
- Provide all staff and educators with clear guidelines around documentation.

Educators and staff will use best endeavours to:

- Make a record of the indicators observed that have led to the belief that there is a current risk of harm to a child or young person. Information on indicators of risk of harm are outlined in the NSW Mandatory Reporter Guide which is accessible at <https://reporter.childstory.nsw.gov.au/s/mrg>;

- Discuss any concerns with the Nominated Supervisor of the service.
- Advise the Nominated Supervisor of their intention to make a report to the Child Protection Helpline (132 111);
- Advise the Nominated Supervisor when a report has been made to the Child Protection Helpline.

Mandatory reporting

The Approved Provider/Nominated Supervisor will use best endeavours to:

- Provide all staff and educators working directly with children with a copy of this Child Protection Policy, and information on how to use the Mandatory Reporter Guide to assist them in their reporting;
- Provide all staff and educators working directly with children with access to the Child Wellbeing and Child Protection NSW Interagency Guidelines; and
- Display the Child Protection Helpline number (132 111) on all phone and lists of emergency contact number in the interests of timely reporting.

Educators and Staff will use best endeavours to:

- In an emergency, where there are urgent concerns for a child's health or life, it is important to contact the police, using the emergency line '000';
- Using the Mandatory Reporter Guide, answer the questions relating to concerns about a child or young person. At the end of the process, a decision report will guide as to what action to take. The Nominated Supervisor is available if staff require assistance to use this online tool;
- If the Mandatory Reporter Guide determines that there are grounds to suspect a risk of significant harm to a child or young person, the staff member or educator will phone the Child Protection Helpline on 132 111 or generate an eReport.
- Mandatory reporters should note that the legislation requires that they continue to respond to the needs of the child or young person (within the terms of their work role) even after a report to the Child Protection Helpline has been made.

- If the Mandatory Reporter Guide determines that an educator or staff member's concerns do not meet the risk of significant harm threshold they do not need to make a report to the Child Protection Helpline, however, they should discuss the matter with the Nominated Supervisor to determine whether the child or family would benefit from the assistance of another agency;
- The staff member or educator should monitor the situation and if they believe there is additional information that could be taken into account, please repeat steps 1-5 as required.

Disclosures of abuse

Educators and staff will use best endeavours to:

- React calmly to the child making the disclosure;
- Listen attentively and later write down the child's exact words; Provide comfort and care to the child, and follow the steps for reporting as per the Mandatory Reporter Guide.
- Reassure the child or young person that:
 - It was right to tell;
 - It is not their fault;
 - It is not OK for adults to harm children - no matter what;
 - Explain what will happen now - that it is part of your job to tell people who can help the child or young person.

Educators and staff will use best endeavours :

- To not prompt the child for further details or ask leading questions which would make the child feel uncomfortable or has the potential to jeopardise any future legal proceedings that may arise as a result of any investigation.

It is important to understand that our role is solely to support the wellbeing of the child at all times, not to investigate further any disclosure made by the child.

- Consider whether or not the police need to be informed of the allegation and if so, make a report;
- Ensure confidentiality is maintained at all times and that systems are in place to deal with any breaches of confidentiality;
- Undertake a risk management approach following an allegation to ensure the protection and safety of children, staff and visitors to the service. Based on this risk assessment, decisions will be made in order to manage the risks that have been identified;
- Develop an investigation plan of the matter. Obtain relevant information from a range of sources. This may include a statement from the person who made the allegation; statements from witnesses and a statement from the person against whom the allegation has been made and any other relevant documentation; If the allegation is being investigated by Family and Community Services or the Police, the service will be guided by their advice as to whether they should independently investigate the allegation;
